

Scholarship Application

For Members of Truckers Service Association and their Dependents

2022 TSA Scholarship Application

A scholarship from Truckers Service Association (TSA) will be awarded in consideration of an applicant's academic achievements, community involvement and financial need. It is awarded for one year in an amount determined by the selection committee. It is valid for the academic year it is awarded and cannot be held over to the following academic year without the approval of the selection committee. Applicant must be a member of TSA or the dependent of a TSA member. Application must provide a cover letter of 2500 words or less describing why they believe they should be awarded a scholarship, including their area of study and chosen career field. A transcript of grades through the most recent completed semester should be submitted with the application. Deadline for application is June 30, 2022.
